Miss Robinson's Challenge

Why not send off your creations to Blue Peter and earn a Blue Peter Badge.

Blue Peter Badges can get you into all sorts of attractions, once they open again, for free!

It costs nothing but a stamp to enter. Find out more here: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbbc/joinin/about-blue-peter-badges>

Miss McCulloch's Cooking Challenge

Help your adults prepare lunch and/or dinner. When you do this try to use something in your kitchen you have never used before such as the grater or can opener (with help).

I can't wait to see what you make!

Miss Paterson's Sparkle Challenge

Can you read or share a book somewhere really interesting such as in a tree or the car or read whilst wearing something really interesting like a fabulous hat, face paint, a costume or sparkly shoes and ask your adults to send a picture of you to the info@address. I would love to see lots of photos!

Miss Foster's Tidy Challenge

I wonder if you can tidy your whole bedroom. See if you can dust any shelves and you could even ask your adult to help you Hoover the carpet/floor!

A tidy room makes for a tidy brain!

Miss Parrons' Phonics Challenge

Can you find something in your house which begins with every letter of the alphabet?

I wonder if you can lay them out and label them?

Miss Brooks' Maths Challenge

Here are a few maths ideas. Maybe choose one!

Play hopscotch using your times tables.

Create your own times table song or dance.

Measure ingredients for baking.

Create a 'tuck shop' with prices and only allow a certain amount to be spent in a day.

Mrs. Thomas' Reading Challenge

♥ Sit back, relax and enjoy a book/some books of your choice. ♥

Why not find a different place to read every day or maybe dress up in an outfit that links to your book?

Keep track of the number of pages you read each day. How many pages can you read in a week?

Miss Betts' Art Challenge

Using natural materials can you create a rainbow collage outside the front of your home? You could use petals, leaves, twigs or stones.

Miss Newbery's Sport Challenge

Can you challenge yourself to go for a run with someone in your family?

Have a go at Joe Wicks' PE or Just Dance on YouTube!

The Star Jump Challenge: See if you can do 10 on Monday, 20 Tuesday, 30 Wednesday, 40 Thursday, 50 Friday, 60 Saturday, and 70 on Sunday!

Mrs. Bond's Geography Challenge

 Use an electronic device and look at the SAT NAV (google maps etc). Type in a destination and see how long it would take to drive or walk there.

You could look at Bristol Zoo or London or even ROME!!!!!!

Miss Lyon's Science Challenge

Have fun creating a rainbow!

You will need some skittles/ M&Ms/Smarties, a plate and some warm water.

Place the sweets in a circle around the edge of your plate. Then, gently pour some water into the centre of the plate until it reaches the sweets. What do you think is going to happen? Watch closely to find out! You could compare what happens with different sweets. Which one changes the fastest?

Mr. Haycock's History Challenge

Do you know where you come from? Why not find out more by making a family tree?

Ask the people in your family about their mums' and dads' and see if you can find out:

What was their name? What country they were from? If they are still alive or when they died?

If you go back far enough, you might find you are related to someone famous!

Miss Goddard's Calm Challenge

When you are outside your home for your daily exercise or in your garden, complete a calming countdown?
Can you stop and see 5 things around you?
Hear 4 different sounds?
Touch 3 things?
Smell 2 things?
Think of 1 thing you love?

Miss Gardiner's Dance Challenge

Have a look at the new dance video which will be uploaded to the Marksbury Road Facebook page this week
Can you join in with me and complete the dance?

Miss Marray's Illustration Challenge

Ask your adult to read, or read a page from a book with no pictures. Can you draw an illustration which would go with these words?
Can you add colour or do the words lend themselves to being black and white?

Miss Heigher's Fitness Challenge:

How many keepie ups can you do? Can you improve if you try everyday?
Can you skip rope for a minute non stop?
Can you balance on one leg and pick an item up from the floor. What about trying with your other leg?

Miss Turfrey's Lego Challenge

Can you create something using Lego?
How about build your name out of blocks, a structure of some of your favourite things or recreate something from one of your favourite books.
