

If you only have 15 minutes spare today...

1) Read your child a story and ask them to show you all the sounds they can spot that they recognise as you read.

2) Do the Maths activity – this will only take around 10 minutes

3) Do the first two parts of the Phonics activity.

Phonics

Fill in the missing sounds.

g _ t

_ ed

Circle the picture that matches the sentence.

Jack was sitting on a chair.

Now write a sentence about this picture!

Literacy

Tomorrow, you will be hearing a story called 'The Chocolate Monster'.

Draw a picture to show what you think the chocolate monster might look like. Write some labels and/or sentences to describe your monster. Now draw/make your own chocolate monster

Maths

The Chocolate Monster has been given two boxes of chocolates for his birthday. There are 8 chocolates altogether. How many chocolates could be in each box? How many ways can you find?

What if there were 12 chocolates altogether?

shutterstock.com • 1602169549

Super challenge:

The Chocolate Monster decides to share his chocolates equally with you. He has 18 chocolates altogether. How many chocolates do you get?

Miss Parsons' raffle ticket challenge: Be adventurous with your taste buds today! Ask your grown up to buy 3 different kinds of chocolate to try – dark, milk and white. Try a little piece of each of them (only a small piece!) and rank them in order of your favourites. Can you think of words to describe the taste?

