

Windy Nights

by Robert Louis Stevenson

Whenever the moon and stars are set,
Whenever the wind is high,
All night long in the dark and wet,
A man goes riding by,
Late in the night when the fires are out,
Why does he gallop and gallop about?

Whenever the trees are crying aloud,
And ships are tossed at sea,
By, on the highway, low and loud,
By at the gallop goes he.
By at the gallop he goes, and then
By he comes back at the gallop again.

Reading Mission 30 mins	Children to read or be supported to read 'Windy Nights' by Robert Louis Stevenson This poem is based on your own interpretation and ideas so there is no right or wrong answers. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1) When you have read the poem once, what image can you visualise in your head? Can you draw it or describe it?2) How many pairs of rhyming words can you find?3) 'Whenever the trees are crying aloud' What do you think this means?4) Could you think of an alternative title for this poem?5) Did you like this poem? Can you explain your reasons?
Writing Mission 30 mins	Today's writing mission (Part 3) To write the rest of the final paragraph of your story and to edit your work with an adult. When editing your writing you must choose a different coloured pen and read through each sentence slowly. You are checking that your writing makes sense and you haven't left out any words, your spelling, punctuation and can you improve any of the vocabulary you have used eg – scared could be edited to terrified. If you would like to write it up in your best handwriting and draw pictures around your story, that would be great to see!

Maths Mission 30 mins	Your maths mission today is to look at the answers given and record any multiplications that could give this answer. Eg: 12 6X2 2X6 12X1 1X12 4X3 3X4 Your numbers are: 20 18 24 50 35 Lets investigate- Which numbers generate more multiplication sentences- odd numbers or even numbers?
Topic Mission	Finished off today! Remember to post pictures or keep it safe somewhere.
